Numb. 11871.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 2, to Tuesday May 5, 1778.

St. James's, May 5.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Buckinghamſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Lord Viſcount Weymouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Community, and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Community, and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, in Common Council aſſembled, in the preſent Situation of Affairs, and when we are on the Eve of a War with a foreign and faithleſs Power, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with the moſt unfeigned Aſſurances of Duty, Loyalty, and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and to expreſs our Zeal for the Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, and our warmeſt Regards and earneſt Wiſhes for the Proſperity of your Kingdoms.

Animated with the ſame Spirit which has deſcended to us from our Anceſtors, who made ſo noble a Stand at the glorious Revolution, we aſſure your Majeſty, that your faithful Citizens of Londonderry will exert themſelves to the utmoſt of their Abilities, in endeavouring to ſupport the Honour of your Majeſty's Government, and the Security of your Dominions.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto cauſed our Common Seal to be affixed, this 7th Day of April, 1778.

Signed by Order,
John Fairly, Chamberlain.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy, and Freeholders of the King's County.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy, and Freeholders of the King's County, at this Aſſizes aſſembled, actuated by the ſtrongeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, take the earlieſt Opportunity of expreſſing our Indignation at the unprecedented Inſult offered to your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity, by the inſidious and perpetual Enemies to the Peace and Profperity of your Dominions.

Prompted by Duty, Affection, and untainted Loyalty, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, exert our moſt ſtrenuous Efforts to enable your Majeſty to aſſert and ſupport the Dignity of your Crown; and that we will chearfully contribute to the utmoſt of our Abilities to the Safety and Defence of your Realms.

At the ſame Time we cannot but lament, that the Reſtrictions laid on the Commerce of this Kingdom prevent our Abilities from being equal to our Inclinations. Relying however on your Majeſty's paternal Regard for a Kingdom diſtinguiſhed for its Attachment to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe, we indulge ourſelves with the pleaſing Expectation, that when the Horrors of War ſhall give way to an honourable Peace, we may rely on your Majeſty's gracious Interpoſition and Concurrence, that the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom may be ſettled on ſuch a Plan of mutual Advantage to Great Britain and Ireland, as muſt, to the Glory of your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, render this loyal Kingdom flouriſhing and happy, and open a new Source of Wealth and Strength to Great Britain.

Dated at Philipſtown, at a General Aſſizes, this 2d Day of April, 1778.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of the County of the City of Waterford in the Kingdom of Ireland; as alſo of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and the reſt of the Inhabitants of the Proteſtant and Roman Catholick Religion in ſaid City.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Citizens of this ancient and ever loyal City, and the reſt of the Inhabitants thereof, with all Humility crave Leave to approach your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity, and unalterable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government; that our Loyalty to the beſt of Sovereigns ſhall ever remain firm and unſhaken; and that the Remembrance of the paternal Attention of your Majeſty to the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom will ever be engraven on our Minds and Hearts.

Permit us, Dread Sovereign, at this Time to aſſure your Majeſty, when the publick Peace is threatened with Diſturbance, and your Majeſty's juſt Rights with Invaſion, by the ambitious Deſigns of Foreign Enemies, that our Allegiance and Fidelity to your Majeſty is firm and immutable, being fully convinced, that our ſeveral and reſpective Rights can alone be ſecured under your Majeſty and your Illuſtrious Family, and that we ſhall heartily and freely uſe every Means to the utmoſt of our Power and Abilities, and chearfully exert ourſelves, on all Occaſions, to maintain the publick Peace and Tranquility, and to prove ourſelves not unworthy your Majeſty's moſt gracious Care, Favour and Protection.

To His Moſt Excellent Majeſty GEORGE the Third, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

The humble Addreſs of the Roman Catholics of Ireland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Roman Catholics of your Kingdom of Ireland, at this alarming Juncture, when the hoſtile Armaments of the Enemies of theſe Kingdoms ſeem to threaten your Majeſty's Dominions with all the Calamities

Calamities of War, beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet an humble Tender of our unfeigned Loyalty, Affection, and Zeal, to renew our sincere Professions of the most inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and to express our Abhorrence of all Foreign invasions or Intestine Commotions, tending to disturb the Tranquility of your Majesty's mild and humane Government.

We humbly presume to indulge the pleasing Hope, that the dutiful and peaceable Behaviour of your Majesty's Irish Roman Catholic Subjects, ever since the Accession of your Majesty's Illustrious Family to the Throne of these Realms; our zealous Conduct under the Administration of Lord Halifax, when this Kingdom was before threatened with a Foreign Invasion; and the solemn and sacred Pledge, which we have lately given, of our Loyalty to your Majesty, of our good Will towards the Constitution, and of our Affection for our Fellow Subjects, by taking and subscribing the Oath of Allegiance and Declaration proposed to us, by an Act passed in this Kingdom the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of your Majesty's Reign, will clearly evince to your Majesty, and to all the World, the Sincerity of those Sentiments of Duty and Fidelity; Sentiments founded in Principle, and cherished by the warmest Gratitude for that kind Protection and Indulgence which we have long experienced under the mild and gracious Government of your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors.

We are not conscious of having omitted any Thing, which Men in our peculiar Circumstances could do, to demonstrate the Sincerity of our Professions; and we shall continue to use every Means in our Power, not only by our Example, but by the utmost Exertion of our Influence, in common with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, to confirm the lower Class of People in a steady Adherence to that Duty, Fidelity and Allegiance, so essentially necessary to their present as well as future Happiness; and to offer up our most earnest and fervent Supplications for the Success of your Majesty's Arms against all your Enemies, and a happy and speedy Re-establishment of Peace, Concord and Unanimity, throughout all your Majesty's Dominions.

Dublin, April 13, 1778.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Roman Catholics of the Town of Newry in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

WE, the Roman Catholics of the Town of Newry, with Hearts full of Gratitude, humbly presume to lay at the Foot of the Throne our most sincere Acknowledgements for the Indulgence and Protection we enjoy under your Majesty's humane Government.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that the undutiful, obstinate, and ungenerous Perseverance of America gives us heart felt Grief. We feel for the Distresses of the Parent State like afflicted Sons; and weep that Tears are the only Arms allowed us to prove our Attachment to your Royal Person, and to support the Rights and Dignity of the Crown and Constitution of Great Britain.

At the present alarming and unexpected Crisis, when Enemies seem to multiply, and Hostilities threaten this Country and every Thing dear to us, we think it an indispensible Duty humbly to approach the Throne, with the most unfeigned Assurances of our inviolable Allegiance to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; and with all Sincerity of Heart to declare, that we are willing, by every Means in our Power, to contribute to the Defence of the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and the Constitution of England, against all Enemies who would attempt to disturb the State or invade this Kingdom.

Given under our Hands, at a Public Meeting, the 8th of April, 1778.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of April, 1778,

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy. And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776 And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August last, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed. And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 30th Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this instant April to the 30th Day of June next, inclusive. —— Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell,

Admiralty-Office, May 5, 1778.

WHEREAS it has been represented to my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Divisions of His Majesty's Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon, and that such Instance of Clemency would have due Influence on their future Behaviour: Their Lordships, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, and to remove their Apprehensions of the Punishment due to their Crime, do hereby give Notice, That such of the said Deserters as shall surrender themselves at any of the aforesaid Divisions at Portsmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any Recruiting Party of the Marines in Great Britain or Ireland, before the 30th Day of June next, will receive His Majesty's Free Pardon.

And whereas several of the said Deserters have been apprehended, and are now in Gaol or Military Custody: Their Lordships do hereby farther give Notice, That His Majesty's Free Pardon will be extended to them also, of which they are to have the Benefit, upon their Arrival at any of the Marine Head Quarters.

And any Marine who may desert, after this Public Notice of His Majesty's most gracious Intentions, dier, will not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Severity.

Ph. Stephens.

War-Office, March 28, 1778.

WHEREAS it has been repreſented to the King, That there are at this Time ſeveral Deſerters from the different Corps in His Majeſty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majeſty's gracious Pardon; and that ſuch an Inſtance of His Royal Clemency would have due Influence upon their future Behaviour: His Majeſty is pleaſed to grant His Free Pardon to all Deſerters from His Land Forces, who ſhall ſurrender themſelves before the 11th Day of May next, either to the Regiments to which they belong, or to ſome other Corps in His Majeſty's Service, or to any Additional Company or Recruiting Party in Great Britain or Ireland.

Such Deſerters, if able-bodied Men and fit for Service, ſhall be atteſted in the Corps to which they ſurrender, and not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may have formerly belonged.

And whereas many of the ſaid Deſerters may have enliſted in other Corps, and are now ſerving therein: His Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to extend to ſuch Deſerters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct that they ſhall continue to ſerve in the Corps wherein they now are, and not be claimed by that in which they formerly ſerved.

And whereas ſeveral of the ſaid Deſerters have been apprehended, and are now in Goal, or in Regimental Cuſtody: His Majeſty is likewiſe pleaſed to grant to them His Free Pardon, of which they are to have the Benefit, upon their Arrival at their reſpective Regiments, or upon their being enliſted by ſome other Corps or Recruiting Party.

Any Soldier who may deſert, after theſe His Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions are made public, ſhall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Severity.

By His Majeſty's Command,

BARRINGTON.

War-Office, March 21.

IT is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, That all Officers belonging to Regiments on the Britiſh Eſtabliſhment, except ſuch as are employed on the Recruiting Service, ſhall repair to their reſpective Poſts without Delay.

By His Majeſty's Command,

BARRINGTON.

St. James's, March 21.

IT is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, That all Officers belonging to Regiments of Cavalry and Infantry, now ſerving in Ireland, except ſuch as are employed on the Recruiting Service, do join their reſpective Corps without Delay; and it is His Majeſty's further Pleaſure, That all Officers belonging to any of the Garriſons in Ireland do repair to their reſpective Poſts without Delay.

WEYMOUTH.

St. James's, March 26, 1778.

THE King has been pleaſed to direct, That, for the Future, the Captain-Lieutenants of Militia ſhall bear the Rank of Captain, and that all Captain Lieutenants of Militia ſhall take the Rank as Captains on all Occaſions from the Date hereof, or from the Dates of ſuch Commiſſions of Captain-Lieutenant as His Majeſty's Lieutenants of Counties may hereafter give.

WEYMOUTH.

Admiralty-Office, April 18, 1778.

NOtice is hereby given to all Sea-Officers, who are abſent with Leave from my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that it is their Lordſhips Directions that they return to England within Six Months after the Date hereof, or they will forfeit all the Half-Pay that may be due to them.

Ph. Stephens.

Treasury Chambers, Dublin, April 11, 1778.

HIS Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland having, agreeably to a Resolution of the House of Commons of this Kingdom, in this present Session of Parliament, by an Order, bearing Date the 10th Day of this instant April, directed, that the Vice-Treasurer or Vice-Treasurers, Paymaster, or Receiver-General of this Kingdom, his or their Deputy or Deputies, should immediately open a Subscription for a Tontine, or Scheme of Life Annuities, to commence from the 25th of March last, for any Sums, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of 300,000l. to be subscribed in Shares of 100l. each, and to be paid into His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, at the several Days and in the several Proportions herein after-mentioned, viz. 10l. at the Time of Subscribing, 20l. on the 10th Day of June next, 30l. on the 1st of August next, and 40l. to compleat each Sum of 100l. on the 29th Day of September next; and that the Persons, for whose Lives the said Annuities shall be payable, shall be named on or before the 1st Day of September, 1779.

I do hereby give Notice, that, in Obedience to his Excellency's Directions, I am ready to receive such Subscriptions, and that no Preference will be given to any Person whatsoever.

H. T. CLEMENTS, Dep. Rec. General.

IRISH TONTINE.

THE Tontine, for which a Subscription is now opened, pursuant to a Resolution of the House of Commons of Ireland, and an Order of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for any Sums not exceeding the Sum of 300,000l. being by the above-mentioned Resolution directed to be payable at such Place or Places, and in such Manner, with such Benefit of Survivorship, and with all and every such Rights, Benefits, and Advantages, as were granted by an Act of the 15th and 16th of His present Majesty, entitled, "An Act for granting Annuities, in the Manner therein provided, to such Persons as shall voluntarily subscribe towards the raising a Sum not exceeding the Sum of 175,000l. it is thought not improper to publish so much of that Act as respects the Terms of the Tontine. By the said Act of the 15th and 16th of His present Majesty, it is amongst other Things enacted, That every Subscriber may subscribe and pay as many Sums of 100l. each as he or she shall think fit; and that all and every Person and Persons subscribing and paying as aforesaid, his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees, may name to the Vice-Treasurer or Vice-Treasurers, Pay-Master or Receiver-General, his or their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being, one or more Life or Lives, at his, her, or their Discretion, for the Sum or Sums so subscribed and paid, so as no more Lives than one be named for each distinct Sum of 100l. so subscribed and paid, and every Person so subscribing and paying his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Subscriber or Subscribers, his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees, as the Case may be, shall receive such Annuity or Interest as aforesaid, together with such Benefit of Survivorship as is herein after provided for every Hundred Pounds subscribed and paid as aforesaid, during the Life so named for every such Sum of 100l. respectively, and that every such Subscriber, his or her Assignee or Assignees, may name one and the same Life for as many of such several and distinct Sums of 100l. each so subscribed and paid, as such Subscriber, his or her Assignee or Assignees, shall think fit, and that the several Nominees in the said Life Annuities shall be divided by the Vice Treasurer or Vice Treasurers, Paymaster, or Receiver General, his or their Deputy and Deputies, into Three separate Classes; the First Class to consist of Persons of the Age of Forty Years and upwards; the Second Class to consist of Persons of the Age of Twenty Years and upwards, but under Forty; and the Third Class to consist of Persons under the Age of Twenty Years; and that the entire Interest of the entire Sum so to be advanced by Persons subscribing in any of the said Classes, his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees, computing such Interest at the Rate of 6l. by the Hundred by the Year, shall go to and be divided among the Persons so subscribing, his, her, or their Assignee or Assignees, in Proportion to the Sums so subscribed and paid, as the Nominees in such Class shall die; and the entire Interest of the Sum advanced shall be paid to the Subscriber, his or her Assignee or Assignees, whose Nominee shall be the Survivor of the Nominees of each Class during the Life of such surviving Nominee; and that, in order to avoid fractional Divisions, and the Expence and Difficulty of keeping long and intricate Accounts, no Distribution of any Sum or Sums so accruing by Survivorship in any of the said Classes shall be made to the Subscriber, or the Assignee or Assignees of such Subscribers, in any such Class, until such Sum or Sums so accrued by the Fall of Lives in such Class, shall be sufficient to pay an additional Interest of One Half per Cent. to the several Persons who shall be then entitled to receive the same; and that every Subscriber, his or her Assignee or Assignees, who shall not compleat his or her Subscription within the Times, and in the Manner aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum or Sums by such Subscriber, his or her Assignee or Assignees advanced, and the same shall be applied to the Credit of the Nation; and that if any Subscriber or Subscribers, or the Assignee or Assignees of any Subscriber or Subscribers, shall die before he, she, or they shall have compleated the Payment of the Sum or Sums so subscribed by him, her, or them respectively as aforesaid, the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Subscriber or Subscribers, or of such Assignee or Assignees, may compleat the Payment within the Time aforesaid."

The Vice Treasurer is directed by the Act to provide Books, in which shall be fairly entered the Names of all who shall be Subscribers, and the several Nominees, and the Ages of such Nominees, for whose Lives respectively the said Annuities shall be payable; to which Books it shall be lawful for the respective Subscribers, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, to resort, and to inspect the same without Fee or Reward. The Nominees shall be described in the said Books by their Names and Sur-names, Additions, Places of Abode, and such other Descriptions as shall best ascertain the Persons. The Subscribers, upon compleating the Payment of the Sum of one or more Hundred Pounds, to receive one or more Debenture or Debentures, which may be assigned or devised in the Manner in the Act mentioned. Any Guardian or Trustee of any Infant may, with the Approbation of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Keepers of the Great Seal for the Time being, subscribe for such Infant, the Infant being the Nominee.

There is a Clause enabling the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors, to appoint one or more Person or Persons to pay in the City of London the Annuities thereby granted (according to the Rate Money is current for in Ireland) for such Sums as should be subscribed, the Person entitled to receive the Annuity at the Time of compleating his Subscription declaring his Intention of receiving his Annuity in the City of London; which said Annuities are thereby directed to be paid, without any Deduction, Abatement, or Charge whatsoever, either for Exchange or otherwise.

The Vice Treasurer is directed, out of the Duties, Rates, Impositions, and Taxes, granted for Payment of the said Annuities, to remit to the Persons so appointed Sums of Money sufficient for the punctual and regular Payment of the said Annuities in the City of London, without any Abatement whatsoever.

By Appointment of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Subscriptions for the aforesaid Annuities will be taken in by Messr. Brown, Collinson, and Tritton, N° 58, Lombard-street; to be transmitted to the Treasurer in Ireland, where they will be received until the whole Sums shall be subscribed.

General Post-Office, April 7, 1778.

ON Saturday last the 4th Instant, about Eleven at Night, the Post Boy was attacked and robbed, Eight Miles from York, in the Road to Malton, of the Bag of Letters from this Office of Thursday Night last the 2d Instant, for Scarborough, Malton, Whitby, and other Places within the Delivery of Scarborough and Malton, and also of the Bag with the Bye and Roaa Letters for the same Places.

The Person who committed this Robbery was then on Foot, but when he passed two Turnpike Gates in the Neighbourhood was mounted upon a Light Bay mettled Horse, about Fourteen Hands and an Half high, strong made; and the Bar-keepers agree with the Post-Boy in the Description of the Robber, that he was a stout Man, Six Feet high, and thin in the Face, with Black Stockings, Waistcoat and Breeches, and Brown Copper-coloured Coat; his own short curled Hair powdered, with a round Hat, two Sides of it tied up; and the Post Boy observed, whilst he lay with his Hands and Feet bound in a Field adjoining the Road, that the Robber put the Bills, &c. which he took out of the Letters, into the inside Pocket of his light Great Coat.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen; or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,

Anth. Todd, Secretary.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or
The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in Black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I.
